

Certified Protection Professional

Study programmes in preparation for the ASIS CPP certification

Two residential study sessions:
8-10 June
and 31 Oct - 2 Nov 2007

£1000 plus VAT (currently 17.5%)

Within the United Kingdom and Europe support from corporate general management for the CPP is growing and the certification is becoming internationally recognised as an indication of the competence of the security professional involved. The certification provides proof of the holder's knowledge of security management and enhances their in-company credibility and career prospects.

In the UK in 2005 a 79% pass rate was achieved amongst the candidates who attended one or both of the study programmes. The 2006 results will not be known until later this year.

ASIS Chapter 208's Barry Walker will again be conducting two residential study sessions in UK to prepare candidates for the ASIS International CPP (Certified Protection Professional) examination. During the sessions, candidates will be given guidance on study and examination techniques, lectures and discussions on the examination subjects and practice test papers.

Subjects Covered Include:

- Security Principles and Practices
- Business Principles and Practices
- Personnel Security
- Physical Security
- Information Security
- Emergency Practices
- Investigations
- Legal Aspects

The CPP Certification Examination

The CPP examination is conducted by ASIS International. Prospective candidates are responsible for checking their eligibility to sit the examination and for registering direct with ASIS International in the United States. The examination fee is $200 for ASIS members and $350 for non-members.

Further details of the subject matter, reading list, examination entry criteria and application form can be found on the ASIS Web site at <http://www.asisonline.org/>.
Candidates are responsible for obtaining copies of the reading material and registering with ASIS direct, to sit the examination.

UK Study Session Dates: 8-10 June and 31 October - 2 November 2007 (Examination – 3 November)

Cost: £1000 plus VAT to include both residential preparation sessions. * £750 plus VAT for November session only.
