

KIDNAP & RANSOM: INITIAL RESPONSE COURSE

19-21 June 2012
6-8 November 2012

£1875* plus VAT
Includes 3 nights full board
accommodation

Location: The Thames Valley, UK

This unique participatory course is designed to provide you with the skills to act effectively as a 'first responder' if a kidnap or extortion event affects your organisation.

Aimed at Security Directors/Managers, Risk Directors/Managers, H&S Directors/Managers, Human Resources Directors and anybody who has staff who face this risk, this course will provide a high level of practical skills and theoretical knowledge which are needed to act confidently, objectively and effectively when protecting the physical integrity of your people or security of your assets, if threatened by a kidnap or commercial extortion-related incident. The skills learnt will transcend just kidnapping or commercial extortion; you will also learn the fundamentals of crisis management planning.

The course is delivered by renowned specialists in this field.

Numbers will be limited to allow delegates to gain maximum benefit from the event.

CONTENT

- The Victim Company Response
- Initial Contacts
- Victim Company
- Victim's Family
- Suspected Offenders Intelligence Gathering and Analysis
- Threat Assessments
- Active Listening Skills
- Liaison with the Victim Company CMT
- Liaison with the Victim's Family
- Making Use of Technical Equipment
- Negotiation with Suspected Offenders
- Dealing with Extended Negotiations
- Arranging Ransom Payment
- Arranging for a Courier
- Dealing with a Released Hostage
- Post-incident Policies and Procedures

* non-residential fee on request.

The course can also be run as a tailored in-house programme for your organisation – please ask for details.