

Business Travel Security Workshop

13 February 2012
09 July 2012
15 October 2012

£400 plus VAT

Introduction

This one-day workshop provides an overview of the most prevalent overseas security risks facing the business traveller and presents a range of best practices to deal with each.

Who Should Attend?

Aimed at anybody within a business who has a legitimate interest in the security of overseas business travellers - this may include line managers, security staff and travellers themselves.

Course Content

- Identification of People at Risk
- Risk Environments
- Security Risk Analysis Overview
- Travel Planning
- Information Sources and High-Risk Countries
- Preparing for Overseas Travel
- Airport, In-Flight and Hotel Security Best Practice
- Communications and Reporting in Procedures
- In-Country Resources
- Use of Executive Protection Specialists
- Kidnap and Ransom
- Expatriate Security and Corporate Travel Security Programmes

Course Outcomes

Successful completion of this workshop will enable delegates to:

- Use standard risk analysis methodologies to identify and mitigate against the risks to business travellers
- Identify the key business travel risk mitigative strategies and describe the travel planning process
- Establish a system of visitor receiving protocols and overseas security travel protocols for departing business travellers, for their respective locations
- Produce a handout of personal security best practices for high-risk countries
- Select from a range of 3rd party services which provide intelligence and other business travel support services
- List the key threats to business travellers and the main mitigative strategies for each
- Identify which countries are currently assessed as high risk to business travellers and why
- Explain the extent of kidnap and ransom and produce policies and protocols
- Deliver pre-travel security briefings for staff travelling overseas and establish an expatriate security programme
- Produce a range of tools and templates to improve the security of business travellers

Location

Thames Valley, UK. If required we can arrange a special bed & breakfast rate at the training venue.

Accredited by Skills for Security, the UK skills and standards setting body for the Security Business Sector

Click here to register. For further information please contact:

Precept Management Consultancy

Email: precept@omantel.net.om

Telephone: +968 24497123, Mobile: +968 99312451, Fax: +968 24497222

Website: www.preceptmanagement.com